But eyebrows furrowed and shoulders shrugged when the King of Shadow Mountain ordered his treasures to be transferred to a new room and left unguarded.

Only Thron himself would watch over his treasure, and he sent out word of its new whereabouts to all who would listen.

The dwarf king wanted to lure someone, or something, with his gold.

Rumors of King Thron's treasure spread, and it was not long before a soaring, dark shadow began to circle the mountain. It grew bigger and bigger, until it landed.

The ground shook under the creature's enormous weight. She flapped her wings and rattled her scales. Rane was her name, and she was a fire breathing dragon with a frightful reputation.

She had an endless craving for gold.
